

DEWEY

A HINT.

"If you find yourself a-feelin' That you'd like to pick a fight, If you find you're not a-sleepin' An' you hardly eat a bite, If your head just keeps a-throbbin' At a mile-a-minute rate, You have got it; quit your workin' An' begin a diggin' bait."

PROHIBITION NOT A FAILURE.

The belief that prohibition is a failure is found largely with two classes: With the friends of liquor whose aim is to discredit prohibition on any account, and with the unthinking and unobserving man and woman who accept the declarations of prohibition enemies without inquiry as to their source and at the same time fail to remember that a single instance of the use of liquor just now may attract more attention than a half dozen instances would have attracted five or ten years ago.—Kansas City Star.

NEVADA MAIL ENDORSES FRANK H. LEE.

The Nevada Mail has discovered Frank Lee, and the following shows how this influential Vernon County newspaper feels about his candidacy for congress:

"The political observers in this congressional district are about convinced that Hon. Frank H. Lee, of Joplin, will receive the Democratic nomination for congressman without any opposition. Several prominent Democrats have been mentioned, but the best opinion is that Mr. Lee is the logical man, and that the interest of the party will be best served by allowing Mr. Lee to receive the nomination without opposition. The Democrats in Missouri are confident of victory in November, and expect to regain much that was lost in the recent landslide. Mr. Lee is an able man and a prominent figure in the Democratic circles of the state, as well as in this congressional district, and will prove a strong candidate in this district. It is not generally known, but it is a fact that Mr. Lee formerly lived in Vernon County. This county will give him a large vote and aid materially in his campaign."

FORMER JASPER MAN, DIES AT VINITA.

J. M. Etter returned Saturday evening from Vinita, Okla., where he buried his father the day before. Deceased lived east of Jasper many years and was well liked in this community. A Vinita paper has the following to say of the life and character of Mr. Etter:

"John M. Etter, who has been a resident of Vinita almost 30 years, departed this life at the family home on North Vann Street Wednesday evening, aged 84 years, last January, of heart failure.

"Deceased was a native of Tennessee, moving to Missouri when 7 years of age with his parents. From Missouri he came to Vinita 29 years ago the 26th of February. Mr. Etter lived the kind of a life all good men live. The writer is not aware of deceased having had a single enemy. He lived a life of strictly attending to his own business. He and Mrs. Etter raised a large family of useful men and women, and though distantly scattered over a large portion of the United States all the children except one were here to attend the funeral.

"Deceased was a Union soldier in the Civil War, having entered the service at Springfield, Mo.

"The surviving members of the family are his good wife and the following children: J. M. Etter, jr., of Jasper, Mo.; Mrs. Ella Bell of Golden City, Mo.; Ferd Etter of Tucson, Ariz.; George Etter of Iowa; Mrs. Charles Sutton of Chelsea, Okla.; Mrs. Clarence Jackson of Parsons, Kans.; Miss Nora Etter of this city; Mrs. Agnes Hughes of Los Angeles, Cal. In addition to these there is E. C. Chambers, a commission merchant of Kansas City, Mo., a nephew who was raised by the deceased. The entire family except Mrs. Hughes of Los Angeles is here."

'T WAS EVER THUS.

Andy Baker handed us this one, Friday. Don't it sound like human nature, though? "I used to be in business at Jasper," Andy said. "Then folks would come in and ask, 'Why can't you do as well as they do, up at Lamar?'"

"Now I'm in business in Lamar, and some of them will ask, 'Why don't you do as well as they do down at Jasper?'"—Lamar Democrat.
